

USDF CONTINUING EDUCATION
FREESTYLE JUDGING SEMINAR
USDF COURSE #103040
OPEN TO USEF DRESSAGE JUDGES AND "L" GRADUATES AND AUDITORS

PRESENTED BY THE DALLAS DRESSAGE CLUB
Instructor: Joan Darnell "S" Judge and "L" Program Faculty
When: Saturday February 8, 2020 10:00am-6:00pm
Where: Lakewood Public Library 6121 Worth St, Dallas, Texas 75214
Contact: Education@DallasDressage.org
Cost: $50 for Participants (must be USEF Dressage Judges or "L" Graduate) and you will automatically receive University credit

$35 for auditors (silent auditing)- an additional $5 required for credit to be sent to USDF

This seminar's curriculum and format is provided by USDF. Topics include music, choreography and judging. It provides a detailed judging criteria and is methodically helpful for judges, riders, and trainers to know how final scores are obtained. Joan Darnell is an excellent speaker and presents the material from a judge's point of view.

This Continuing Education in Freestyle Judging Program has been approved for USEF FS designation for Licensed Dressage Judges. L Graduates get your 2019 eight hours of continuing education credits in one day!

Register at: www.DallasDressage.org